Dedication

To Mr. Lewis, whose devotion beyond the call of duty has made The Carver Community a clean and safe place to learn and grow, we, the class of 1966 dedicate this book.

DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF SANDRA HUMES

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.
I love thee to the depth and breadth and height
My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight
For the ends of Being and ideal Grace.

I love thee to the level of everyday's
Most quiet need, by sun and candle light.
I love thee freely, as men strive for Right;
I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise.

I love thee with the passion put to use
In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.

I love thee with a love I seemed to lose
With my lost saints—I love thee with the breath,
Smiles, tears, of all my life—and, if God choose,
I shall but love thee better after death.

Elizabeth Browning

Principal's Message

To Class of 1966

Dear Friends,

It is my desire that you continue to study and learn. And remember that honesty, integrity, stability, resourcefulness, aggressiveness and observation are among the qualifications which I believe necessary in building a solid character. That is what you will need along with your training in meeting the demands of this era.

Sincerely yours,

H. A. Fleshmon

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The time has come, so we are told, that the future of seniors of '66 unfolds.

Come with me to the world of '69 and see the seniors that are doing fine.

The future is coming plainly in view, and I can see things coming clearly through.

I can see James Banks and Henry Robinson still driving bus 28 and 9. The only difference is that they are no longer hauling students, but they are now famous for hauling bean pickers to their picking spots.

George Gibson has a large turkey farm, where he has assisting him Sarah Hill whose main job is to collect turkey eggs.

Carolyn Rawlings, Shirley Jackson and Thelma Ferguson are now full fledged nurses working for Doctor Kildare.

Patricia DeBerry has at last raised her cheering voice loud enough to be heard by Gilbert Turner. The two are now married and living in Detroit where Gilbert is playing waterboy for the Detroit Lions and DeBerry is making sneaky calls to George Dade.

William Carey is now marching as leader of the Soup and Cracker line down the streets of Madison.

When you are passing through the big boss town of Madison, put forth a special effort to stop by Treva Frye's Cafe where top on her menu is skunk soup and possum belly. Her main standby is Richard Weaver who entertains her guests by doing a dance known as the "Weaver Tap."

Ronald Rocca is now a big time pianist. If you'd like to hear a few of his sounds, contact him on the side of the road in No-Wheresville.

Joyce Snead and Warren Price are now happily married and living in Beverly Hills, California. They just opened up a dance hall and already having a hard time teaching the audience of "Little Prices" a dance known as the hucklebuck.

All eyes are turned on Marian Humes as she switches gracefully down the halls of Virginia State College where she is enrolled in a class that teaches that "new way of walking."

Jerome Mallory and Harvey Lewis are still jiving their way through life with the desire to jive their way into Congress.

Barbara Lewis and James Greene are both running for president of the United States. No doubt, James will win because Gloria Jackson is running around crying "please vote for James."

Joseph Hunter is now directing traffic in his hometown, Culpeper, where none of the "Little Hunters" can learn to yield the right of way.

Lawrence Hutcherson and George Johnson are still bench warmers for the new football team known as the Robinson Rams. Their manager is Ronald Robinson.

James Mack has his own basketball team and his theme is "shoot now, aim later."

Peggy Gordon and Gladys Winkey are now making clothes for Carver's faculty. Supervising them is Patricia Jones.

Dorothy Holmes is now a teacher at A. G. Richardson High School. She is now teaching Mary Wormley, Harry Jones and Regina Walker the art of losing weight.

Melvin Turner and Sarah Tyree are now listed as top basketball players at Hooterville High in Brightwood.

Joyce Thompson, Hazel Walker, Daniel Carter and Lois McIntosh are now still attending a P. E. class taught by Johnny Tyree. Their man topic is "How to grow tall."

Harrison Porter and Thelma King have finally gotten hitched and are making their home in Mitchell, Virginia.

Richard Porter and Ronald Beckwith are now making appearances with James Brown and his band. James has given them the job of carrying instruments and keeping his shoes shined.

Ella Stewart, Bertha Strother, Thelma Arrington, and Grace Arrington have gone to a corner by themselves to pass on gossip about you know who!

Rebecca Ford, Patsy Scott and Joyce Collins finally made Broadway. The three will be starring in a movie entitled "Fe Fi Fo and Where Did They Come From?"

Helen Fortune, Carolyn Hunt and Myra Carter are now teaching English to anyone interested in learning.

Clara Ellis and Margaret Winston are still only interested in being friends to each other.

Julia Waters and Lillian Stewart are still dressing tough. Their latest wardrobe was hauled in from Sacks and Cans by Isaac Winston who makes a living hauling trash.

Rosie Banks and Jean Cottoms are now settled down to a life of leisure.

Irma Lawson and Sharon Alexander are trying to become queens of the hop. The only person standing in their way is Peggy Arrington and she plans to beat them both.

Virginia Beasley and Cleve Dennis are leading a joyous life in Rapahannock. They have opened up a fruit stand with a sign that reads, "Get Your Goodies Here."

Charlotte Aylor and Joan Brown are taking reducing pills and hoping to run for Miss America.

Jane Humes is still selling popcorn making small change to finance her bills.

Delores Jasper is quietly sitting at home watching TV.

Boston Lewis has finally bought a new car. A 1968 Model T.

Gloria Price is still working in the "Pet Shop" in Culpeper waiting for the big break to come in her life.
